“PRISMS” is an acronym for “Parents and Researchers Interested in Smith Magenis Syndrome” (SMS), which is associated with a small missing part of the 17th chromosome. SMS causes physical defects; scoliosis; epilepsy; early speech & motor delays; & autistic-like behaviors in 1/25,000 births. This Vineyard Walk will provide monetary support for families to attend an International Conference. The 2014 International SMS Conference was held in St. Louis, MO, and scheduled to return to St. Louis in July, 2016.
